

Long Meadow Ranch Winery

Cabernet Sauvignon
1999

Wine of the Month: Best Red

the world's best wine magazine
Decanter
MAGAZINE

December 1, 2002

“...not just another pricey Napa Valley Cabernet...aromas of blackberry, spiced cherry and plum are restrained and refined...lovely flavors of plum wild berry, and high-toned oak, the whole package comes across as smooth, almost unctuous, and compressed...”

“Pick of the Week”

The New York Times

September 25, 2002

“Look for the Long Meadow, which surpasses the quality of many so-called cults, and you can actually buy this wine. It doesn't hit you over the head with oak and tannins, instead seduces you with smoothness, elegance and class.”

93 Points

Wine & Spirits
THE PRACTICAL GUIDE TO WINE

February, 2003

“Fine ripeness brings a classical elegance... lead pencil scent...flavors of black earth and humus...balance the deep, dark cherry. Rich and gently perfumed, this has a long life ahead.”

91 Points

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

November 15, 2002

“Dark, heady...packed with smoke and vanilla. . . .a young wine meant for aging.”