FARMSTEAD by Long Meadow Ranch is a négociant wine project created exclusively for Farmstead at Long Meadow Ranch. Barrels are selected and sourced through our close relationships with winemakers specializing in varietals not grown or produced by LMR. This allows us to offer a wider spectrum of varietals in both bottle and keg format. Barrels are selected to match the philosophy of our estate wines. We are seeking out varietal character that expresses a classic, California fruit profile, fresh acidity, and moderate alcohol, delivering a high quality wine at a tremendous value for our guests.

VARIETAL 100% Pinot Noir

AVA Russian River Valley

The Russian River Valley appellation spans from the base of the Mayacamas Mountains in Santa Rosa out towards the Sebastopol Hills of the Sonoma Coast. A combination of volcanic, alluvial and riverbed gravel coupled with warm days and cool nights deliver complexity to an array of grape varietals.
